

guitar-acoustic author Martin Weiss are presenting their debut album: Confident in style and with intimate, artistic arrangements, the duo celebrates a variety of songs from jazz standards and Latin classics to Italian and French chansons. With passion and a soulful timbre, Nilsson sings in five languages and Weiss provides tasteful intros and interludes on the nylon string. As a duo they groove in dreamlike interaction without a safety net.